CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

On the village green in Tallmadge ot the junction of routes 18 and 91 on the eostern outskirts of Akron. This beoutiful white frome church is on excellent exomple of the lote coloniol churches of Western Reserve type. Erected in 1822 from wood donoted by members of the congregotion—its four clossic frontol columns were eoch mode from o single, solid wolnut log, shoped ond reeded by hand. All the chestnut shingles came from one tremendous tree!

SOHIO

6 in o series of "Let's Explore Ohio" scenic post cords ovoiloble only through Stondord Oil stotions ond deolers. Free. Kodochrome by R. R. McCreory.

3–

POST CARD

PLACE ONE CENT STAMP HERE